Gentlemen:

I am sending you herewith a check for $5.00 which apparently covers 1929 dues.

I was not aware that this bill was unpaid.

My son Allen is not taking sufficient interest in coins to warrant paying dues any further; at least until his interest in this subject again wakens. Will you please therefore cancel his membership.

Yours very truly,

Residence address:

Dear Mr. Lloyd:

Your letter of the fifth is at hand and I am sorry to have you write that your son is at present not taking sufficient interest in numismatics to warrant your continuing his membership. I have checked up our records and do not find that we receive dues for 1929. I hope that your son will one day renew his membership.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.
